COOKED CHINESE REFORM.

EXAMS. WERE TO BE FIXED SO PHILLIPS MEN COULDN'T PASS.

All Right, the Mayor Thought-E. F. Wheeler Thought Not-Phillips Gave the Mayor on American Fagte Talking To Which Made Him Scratch His Head, When Lee Phillips was bounced from his job as Secretary to the Chinese Civil Service Commission he straightway established a coaching school for candidates. Knowing as he did the ins and outs of the Chinese system, he was able to coach his candidates in such a way that they all passed with very high percentages.

This seemed to Commissioner Watson to be all wrong, and last January it was practically decided that Mr. Phillips's students should be unable to pass any more examinations. When Mr. Phillips heard of this he went to see the Mayor, and said that he was only doing what is done in other cities and what is a recognized business in England. The Mayor thought better of it for a time and the matter dropped. Mr. Phillips's students continued to take high honors in all of the examinations and his school rapidly became popular.

Of late Mr. Watson has become again very importunate, and the Mayor decided to move against Phillips once more. The reason for this was that some of Mayor Strong's heads of departments saw in Mr. Phillips's school the solution of the very difficult problem of how to get jobs for their friends. One Commissioner particular had a job and he had a friend. Mayor Strong had put the job in the classified list, and the reform Commissioner didn't know what to do until a bright idea struck him. He sent his friend to Mr. Phillips with instructions to the latter to cram him in the most approved fashion for the particular examination for this particu-lar job. Mr. Phillips labored with the friend, and he vanguished all competitors with ease lar job. Mr. Phillips labored with the friend, and he vanquished all competitors with ease and got the job.

Somehow the story reached the ears of the Civil Service Commissioners and they were angry, particularly Commissioners and they were angry, particularly Commissioners and they were angry, particularly Commissioner Watson. Thay put their heads together and as a result an "inspector of moral character" was appointed. The duties of this office as written down were vague. He was supposed to look into the history of each candidate and see that he would not in any way besmirch the snow-white robe of reform. But it is said that he has other duties, one of which is to whisper softly in the candidate's ear that if he takes lessons of Mr. Phillips he will be "finnked" or "bligged" or whateverother term the Commissioners use.

Then Mr. Watson got hold of the Mayor's ear again, and as a result his Honor wrote a letter to Everett P. Wheeler, President of the Commission, telling him that Phillips men must be barred. Mr. Wheeler wrote in reply to the Mayor that such a thing was impossible. Mr. Phillips heard of this also, and came down to see the Mayor again. From all accounts he gave his Honor a very uncomfortable quarter of an hour. He said that he was an American citizen, engaged in a legitimate business, that the Mayor of New York had no right to interfere with him, and that if he did interfere there would be trouble.

The Mayor is now hesitating and wondering if classroom examinations really are a panacea for all civic tils when the commonplace political adherents of any reform Commissioner can be coached to pass them so easily.

CAN'T KEEP POLITICS OUT.

Mayor Tried the Chinese Pitchfork-Besult Described by the Comptroller, Comptroller Fitch protested to the Mayor last week that the latter should have notified him efore putting a lot of bonded officers in the Finance Department in the competitive civil service class. The Mayor told a Sun reporter that he retorted that he had been elected on pledges to take politics out of municipal Goveroment so far as possible, and that his civil service order had been made with that idea in day about this remark of the Mayor.

"Instead of taking politics out Mayor Strong has been injecting it into the municipal Administration." said he. "Never have I seen so many aggressive politicians in office as have been put there by Mayor Strong and his Comaissioners. They are aggressive and active in missioners. They are aggressive and active in politics because they are factionists. If they were merely kepublicans working for party interests they would not be so much in evidence as they are. Being factionists they are struggling continually to gain control of party organization and it has come to be understood that no places or patronage of any sort is dispensed except for factional advantage. Every yard of carpet, every pound of malls is beight from an anti-PlattlRepublican, because of his political affiliation. To day we have the spectacle of most of these administration place holders away from their duty in this city at the Republican National Convention, still keeping up their factional fighting. This is the way Mayor Strong has kept politics out of municipal Government.

"I challenge a comparison with the administration of the Finance Department. Every one of the 182 employees there knows that the head of that department does not care how they vote, but that he does not want them to engage actively in political work to the neglect of their official duty, and I do not believe one can be neglected out who has been a delegate to a political control of the second of pointed out who has been a designate to a postur-cal Convention since the present Comptroller took charge."

H. B. BEECHER ON TRIAL. Mis Partner, Midgeley, Was Acquitted Two The trial of Henry Barton Beecher, son of the late Henry Ward Beecher, on a charge of forgery, was begun yesterday before Justice Fursman in the criminal part of the Supreme Court. Mr. Beecher, who was formerly a member of the defunct firm of Beecher, Schenck & Co. was indicted with his partners, Messrs. Schenck and Midgeley. The firm was the agent for the Company, which was organized in Baltimore in 1890 to insure railroad companies against col-1890 to insure railroad companies against collisions and accidents. The company failed in 1893, with liabilities amounting to $1,700,000 and assets of $250,000. It is aliesed that the company had collected $7,000,000 in premiums from various railroads. It has also been alleged that the agents forged applications from railroad companies for insurance, and also forged endorsements on checks. Midgeley was tried in the General Sessions and acquitted two months ago. The specific complaint against Mr. Beecher is forging an application of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad for insurance in the company. Assistant District Attorney Weeks is prosecuting the case, and ten jurors were secured at the close of yesterday's session.

THE NASSAU ELECTRIC COMPANY. The Litigation Over the Validity of Ite Franchise at an End.

The Brooklyn Aldermen yesterday adopted a resolution giving to Corporation Counsel Burr permission to withdraw from the appeal in the suit, which was instituted nearly two years ago, suit, which was instituted nearly two years ago, to have the trolley franchise granted to the Nassau Electric Railroad Company declared invalid, Mr. Burr strongly recommended the dropping of all further litigation against the company, because the terms proposed were most satisfactory to the city. The action of the Aldermen now removes the only cloud on the franchise of the Nassau Company.

Clergyman Revoked His Charitable Be-

The Rev. James M. Reid, who dled recently, made a will leaving $5,000 each to the Savings Fund Society of the Michigan Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Methodist Reiscopal Hospital of Brocklyn, and the Clifton Springs Sanitarium, and $15,000 to the Mis-sionary Society of the Verindest Episcopal Church to establish a College in India. Later he made a codicil revoking all these bequests and leaving his entire estate of $80,000 to his wife, Caroline S. Reid, and to relatives. Will and codicil were filed for probate here yesterday.

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness, without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its bene-ficial effects, to note when you pur-chase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, then laxa-tives or other remedies are not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, then one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Surup of Figs stands highest and is most largely med and gives most general satisfaction.

COUNTESS CHABOT'S WILL.

Besidue Left to Miss McLane - Twenty France to the Count-Relatives Contest. Notice of a contest of the will of Zenta Heyward de Rohan, the Countess Chabot, who died in Paris, Feb. 26th last, leaving about $250,000 in this State, has been entered in the Sur-rogate's Court. She left her husband, Count Guy de Chabot, but twenty francs. He was her second husband. Her mother was Zefa Heyward who died several months ago, leaving a large estate, most of which went to the Counters. Mrs. Heyward's will was contested by her grandson, Frank B. Heyward of 832 Union treet, Brooklyn, but the contest was dropped. The Countess de Chabot was a cousin of Gen. William Cutting, who is now in Paris, and she was a relative of Brockholst Cutting and Hey-

William Cutting, who is now in Paris, and she was a relative of Brockholst Cutting and Heyward Cutting.

Her will was executed Aug. 27, 1892. In it she gives the twenty francs to her husband, $10,000 to Clifford A. Hand, a lawver of this city, and provides that the rest of her estate shall go to her mother, but in the event of her muther dying first, the residue was to go to the descendants of the Countess's aunt, Mrs. Hannah Hone. The will made her mother and Lawyer Hand executors.

The mother had died when the Countess executed a codiction Feb. Liast which makes a different disposition of the whole estate. By this codictishe gives all her jewelry to her friend Ella King. To her friend Jennie McLane, formerly Minister of the United States in Paris, she first specifies that she gives all her furniture, ornaments, pictures, brica-brac, linen, silver, books, laces, and wearing apparel, and then says that Miss McLane is to get all her other real and personal property in France and America, except for bequests to her servants. Her cook, Jeanne Oubry, is to receive 20,000 francs, and two dogs; and other servants get 5,000 francs. The Count does not figure in the codicil. The Countess's nephew, Frank B. Heyward, contests both will and codicil. The following children of Mrs. Hannah Hone have contested only the probate of the codicil: Henrietta H. Anthon, Maris H. Huckley, Joanna H. Staples, and Hannah H. Leonard. All the contestants set up mental incapacity and undue influence. The Count de Chabot has not so far entered a contest.

Business Troubles.

Deputy Sheriff Peter Carraher took charge yesterday of the place of business of Frank H. Briggs, doing business as Briggs & Co., wholesale dealer in shoes at 107 Duane street, on executions from Hastings & Gleason aggregating $28.012. Mr. Briggs allowed judgments to be taken against him in favor of the following: V. K. & A. H. Jones, $20,971 on notes of Mr. Briggs; Granite Shoe Company, $2,159 for money loaned; Arthur L. Briggs, Jr., $3,779, money loaned: Arthur L. Briggs, Jr., $3,779, due for services as salesman; Jane L. Briggs, $1,103 on a note. Hastings & Gleason estimate the liabilities at $60,000, with assets of probably $30,000.

Louis Thiel, retail shoe dealer at Avenue B and Fourth street, confessed Judgments yesterday in favor of Louisa Thiel for $3,048 for borrowed money, and in favor of M. Katzenberg & Sons for $904 for merchandise. Deputy Sheriff Williams took possession of the store. Blumensiel & Hirsch, his attorneys, estimate the liabilities at $20,000; assets $10,000.

The McCabe Manufacturing Company, manufacturers of door hangers at 532 WestTwenty-second street, made an assignment yesterday to James T. McCabe, the President.

Deputy Sheriff Butler received yesterday an attachment against S. Harris, jeweller at 382 Grand street, for $530, in favor of Julia Dietz, for loose diamonds, obtained on the ground that he had disposed of his property.

Max Whitehead, manufacturer of children's dresses and cloaks at 17 and 19 West Third street, confessed Judgment yesterday to W. E. House for $672, for merchandise, and execution was issued to the Sheriff.

Jurors Explain Their Odd Verdiet. The jurymen in the Over and Terminer Court Clifford of murder in the first degree and recommended him to the mercy of the Court, are trying to explain their peculiar course. They say that the petition for mercy was for the Court of Parlons and not for the trial court. All the jurors were convinced that the verdict should be murder in the first degree, but many of them were desirous of saving Clifferd from being hanged.

CHICAGO CLOSING QUOTATIONS.

MONDAY, June 15. The speculation in stocks to-day was governed entirely by prospects that the fight at St. Louis in favor of the adoption of an unequivocal gold plank by the Republican Convention may succeed. A hopeful view of the outcome of the struggle is apparently held abroad, for London was again a fairly liberal buyer of stocks. Its purchases were of sufficient magnitude to have some effect upon the foreign exchange market They were most conspicuous in St. Paul and in Louisville and Nashville, both of which closed materially higher than on Saturday. The greatest net advance was that of 234 in Jersey City who convicted Detective Edward | Weent, in Sugar Refining, which was dealt in to-day ex the quarterly dividend of 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ cent.

I' will be seen, therefore, that the stock recovered more than two-thirds of the dividend. All of the Cranger stocks were exceptionally strong. with St. Paul leading in point of activity, and C., B. and Quincy scoring the greatest net gain. Other noteworthy movements were in Manhattan Bailway, General Electric, Missouri Pacific, iteading, and Tennessue Coal and Iron. The volume of trading was larger than the reient cally everage, and the transactions were fairly well distributed. Moderate realizing sales at the opening and the engagement of $450,000 gold for export to-morrow had practically no effect upon the prevailing sentiment.

The closing was strong at about the best prices. Final sales compare with those of Saturday Government bonds strong. The 5s closed 14 R cent., the 4s of 1907 5, and the 4s of 1925 54 ecent. higher bid each. Railway bonds strong and active.
